

PAVING THE WAY: Reflections on the Early Years of Coeducation at Notre Dame

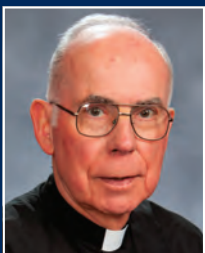

Join us for a panel discussion to commemorate the

40TH ANNIVERSARY OF COEDUCATION AT NOTRE DAME

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 2012

7:30 p.m. | Eck Visitors Center Auditorium

PANELISTS INCLUDE:

Father Thomas Blantz, C.S.C. '57, '63 MA, professor of history at the University of Notre Dame and former vice president for Student Affairs (1970-'72).

Kathleen Cekanski-Farrand, '73 JD, attorney for the South Bend City Council and former Law School faculty member (1973-'78); she served as rector of Badin Hall (1972-'73) and Breen-Phillips Hall (1973-'74).

Ann Therese Darin Palmer '73, '75 MBA, editor of Thanking Father Ted: Thirty-Five Years of Notre Dame Coeducation; she is a member of Notre Dame's first coed graduating class.

Susan Poulson, professor of history at the University of Scranton and co-editor of Going Coed: Women's Experiences in Formerly Men's Colleges and Universities, 1950-2000

Dan Reagan '76, principal of D.G. Reagan & Associates LLC and former associate vice president for university relations at Notre Dame (2003-'12); he is a member of Notre Dame's first coed freshman class.

Jeanine Sterling '76, senior analyst for a global research and consulting firm; she is a member of Notre Dame's first coed freshman class and serves on the Alumni Association's ND Women Connect steering committee.

This event is free and open to the public. Reception to follow. Visit cushwa.nd.edu for more information.

Cosponsored by the Cushwa Center for the Study of American Catholicism, the Department of American Studies, the Program of Gender Studies, and Badin Hall.