

UNIVERSITY OF
NOTRE DAME

Department of Economics and Econometrics
William and Dorothy O'Neill Chair in Economics

The Department of Economics and Econometrics invites nominations and applications for the William and Dorothy O'Neill Chair in Economics. A highly productive economist with an outstanding record of scholarly publications, an established academic reputation, and a commitment to excellence in undergraduate and graduate teaching is sought. This position is part of a major building initiative that includes this endowed chair and several junior positions over the next few years. Applicants should submit a cover letter and curriculum vita. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

The University of Notre Dame is an international Catholic research university and an equal opportunity, affirmative action educator and employer with a strong institutional commitment to racial, cultural, and gender diversity. Women, minorities, and Catholics are encouraged to apply. For additional information, see <http://econometrics.nd.edu/>.
