

Rich and Monica Earley Family Endowment for Excellence in Sacred Music

FINANCIAL SUMMARY as of June 30, 2017

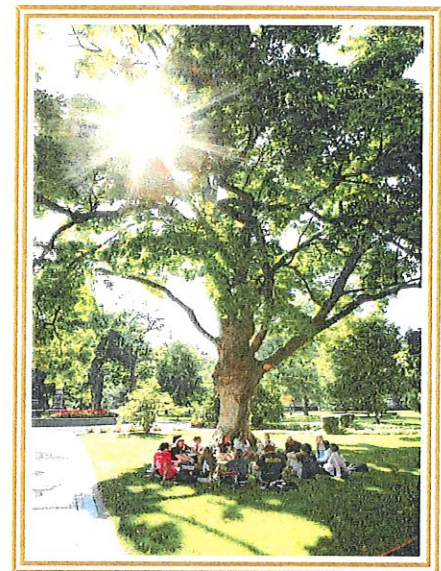

Account Number: 65807 / 384035

PURPOSE:

Established in 2016, this endowment supports the top priorities in the Sacred Music Program identified annually by the dean of the College of Arts & Letters and the director of the Sacred Music Program.

FINANCIAL HISTORY:

|                               |    |
|-------------------------------|----|
| Total gifts to endowed fund   | $ |
| Fiscal Year 2017 distribution | $ |
| Cumulative fund distribution  | $ |

5-YEAR HISTORY OF MARKET VALUE BY FISCAL YEAR:

(Total market value includes additions and appreciation.)

FISCAL YEAR 2017 DISTRIBUTION AND IMPACT:

The College of Arts and Letters bolsters the University’s distinctive educational mission by serving as the heart of liberal arts education at Notre Dame. With the support of funds like this, the college is better able to prepare students who will become the great thinkers of the future in passion and purpose. Though the Rich and Monica Earley Family Endowment for Excellence in Sacred Music was not utilized during the last academic year, its earnings continued to grow in anticipation of benefiting the Sacred Music Program as outlined for this endowment.

CUMULATIVE DISTRIBUTION AND IMPACT:

The Sacred Music Program is at the heart of the mission of the University of Notre Dame. With the support of the Rich and Monica Earley Family Endowment for Excellence in Sacred Music, the program will continue to fulfill its purpose of training and preparing professional musicians for work in Christian churches, at a time when there is a well-established need for skilled musicians who understand the liturgy and know how to work with pastors, priests, and within congregations. This endowment truly is vital in supporting the University’s distinctive educational mission, and it will do so in perpetuity.