Program of Liberal Studies

“PLS is a walk with Socrates, a prayer with Augustine, lunch with Tolstoy, wrestling with Aristotle, fencing with Kierkegaard, a night of cards with Pascal, a voyage with Homer, a friendly wager with Pascal, and a pilgrimage with Chaucer all in one.”

—PLS student

Explore in depth the world’s literature, philosophy, science, theology, political theory, intellectual history, cultural history, and fine arts.

Ask not what your education can do for you but what you can do to better your education … PLS may be the answer.

Analyze, discuss, and debate the major texts from western civilization in small, seminar-style classes.

pls@nd.edu

UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
College of Arts and Letters