The Center for the Study of Languages and Cultures provides programming, technology, and space for foreign language-culture exposure, interaction, and communication.

Activities:
peer tutoring, conversation partnerships, cultural celebrations, film nights, language clubs, cultural immersion programs, study skills seminars, and summer language grants.

Resources:
foreign language television, film and video teleconferencing, video equipment for class projects, language software, and a wide variety of literature, periodicals, film, and audio materials.

Facilities:
lounge, discussion areas, study booths, multipurpose classroom, private multimedia room, kitchenette, and, yes, even a coffee station for those late-night study sessions.

Languages:
Arabic  Chinese  French  German  Greek  Irish  Italian  Japanese  Korean  Latin  Portuguese  Quechua  Russian  Spanish