Put Your Major to Work

What do you like to do?

What is your personality type, and how does it relate to possible careers?

What kind of job will you find fulfilling?

We help you answer all these questions and put you on the right career path.

The Career Center at Notre Dame offers a variety of programs and services that promote lifelong career management.

Six months after graduation:

- approximately 43% of Arts and Letters majors go into full-time work
- 31% are in graduate or professional school
- 20% are in service programs or pursuing independent projects
- only 2% are still seeking employment.
